"We Have a Hand in the Future"

Foreword

THE FUTURE—a word that holds a magical meaning for any poet or artist who has ever beheld a setting sun or a star-filled sky—a word to bring adventure and courage to the meekest of hearts and love and hope to the souls of all mankind.

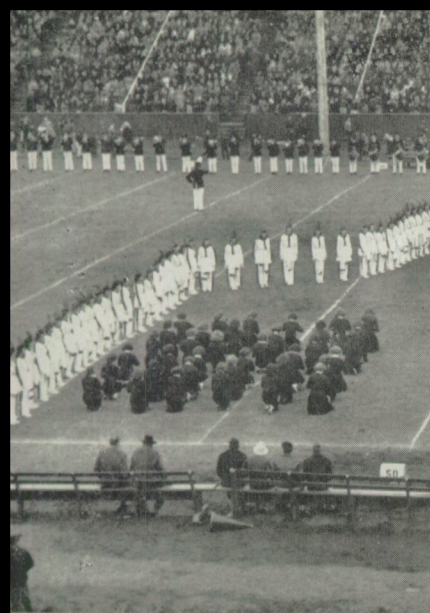

THE FUTURE—that to which all humanity looks forward. Noah, in his antideluvian preparations, held for it no fear, for he had supreme power—faith in his Maker, his God.

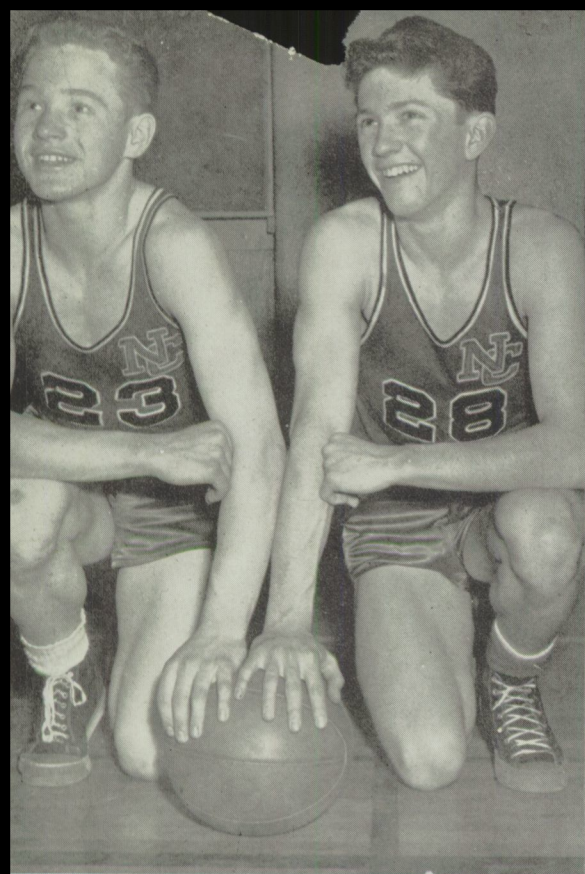

The creator, the builder, the thinker, the dreamer—all have this in common; they have faith in the future, the future in which they have an indefinable part.

THE FUTURE—the youth of a world builds its future. That the youth of this school are building, are creating their future is aptly proved by their insatiable thirst for knowledge, their keen interest in all that exists and their complete understanding of all that has ceased to exist.

Future success and leadership of today's youth is suggested by the theme of the 1947 Tamarack, depicted by various hand symbols,—“We have a hand in the future”—and indeed, the future belongs to youth.

Composing the Associated Student councils are the Boys' Federation council and the Central council of the Girls' league. The councils have supervision over the Junior Red Cross, the Conduct Board, and the operation of several joint committees.

Among these joint committees, the dance committee holds a prominent position. Featured dances of the year were the Sadie Hawkins dance, the Varsity Ball, and the Tennis Ball. This committee was also instrumental in securing the decorations for the "Totem Inn," which were designed and constructed by members of the Art department.

The campaign for the Orphans' Christmas was highlighted by a "campaign within a campaign" to collect donations for two Dutch war relief families. The spring council undertook the task of providing for three more Dutch families who have had an unlucky time of it.

At the first semester A. S. C. party, old time dancing was a major attraction as it was at the second semester party, where the theme was based on St. Patrick's day. Refreshments included the traditional "cokes," doughnuts, and popcorn balls.

A precedent was established, when the council voted to have a "dress up day." A semi-annual affair, it was promoted by older members of the A. S. C. who asserted that there had never been a day in all their four years of high school on which they could wear their dress up clothes.

Another "first" for the spring council was a party given from time to time honoring the individual classes—freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior. This series was climaxed by an all-school dance in March.

Officers for the fall semester were: Don Rohlf, president; Mary Jane Grossman, vice president; Patty Butterfield, secretary; and Charlie Wilson, treasurer.

They also sponsored a special pay convocation featuring Lee Grable, magician. Other projects included redecorating the League office, a pot luck dinner for members of the Associated Student councils, a program and party for incoming students in January, and another pot luck dinner for officers of the five city schools.

A girl qualifies for the League honor roll if she has grades of "C" or better and has earned ten League points, serving in one of the League departments. Two semesters of service are awarded by a bronze pin; four, a silver pin; six, a gold pin; and eight semesters of service, a gold pin with a ruby. A special girls' convocation is held to award the pins.

The emblem of the League expresses its purpose: An American flag represents honor; the head of a young girl, service; and a Red Cross flag, loyalty.

The Junior Red Cross, under the direction of Miss Bertha Boehme, faculty adviser, collected $384 at the beginning of the fall term. This money was contributed to the Red Cross clinic, which aids underprivileged children. The group also collected 1,768 comic books for the soldiers in hospitals. Gift boxes for children in war devastated countries were made as a Christmas project.

Wanda attended an all-day Red Cross convention Oct. 23, in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church. At this meeting plans were made and discussed for Junior Red Cross activities for the school year. Delegates ate a lunch provided by the Red Cross canteen and later were guests at Fort George Wright, where they saw a program presented by Miss Josephine Jack, field director.

The gift box drive in November was one of the most successful ventures of the North Central Red Cross. Each room was asked to contribute two boxes, but several rooms contributed many more than their quota. Each box contained soap, wash cloths, toothbrushes, and a special gift for a boy or girl, depending upon which was to receive the box. The drive netted 197 boxes and expenditures were about $500, according to Miss Boehme. Mr. Carriker's room, 115W, turned in 29 boxes and Mr. Bonamy's room, 314, completed 22 boxes.

Mrs. Berneice B. Quackenbush, director of home nursing for the American Red Cross, taught a unit on nursing care in Miss Bessie Graham's home nursing class.

A Red Cross representative is appointed in each home room every semester. He attends the meetings and brings reports to the room he represents.

The purpose of this group is "to promote school spirit and interest in all the athletic activities around North Central." Miss Verna Betz first organized the group in 1938. Miss Bertha Boehme and Mrs. Gladys Dunphy were succeeding advisers, and Miss Betty Gazette is the present adviser.

What's Next on the AGENDA!

Amores Librorum

Each semester, members of Amores Librorum give several book reviews, from which are compiled a recommended list of new books for the students. This year, the club sponsored a Book week convocation featuring four Spokane writers, who each gave a short talk. The club also sponsored a Book week contest.

Amores Librorum was organized in 1936, by Miss Mary Bacon, head librarian. Every member of Amores Librorum, which means "Lover of Books," must have a "B" average.

Art Club

The Art club whose purpose is to encourage interest in fine arts was organized in 1916 by Miss Bessie Curtis. Miss Caroline Busch is the present adviser.

Unusually beautiful Christmas decorations for the building were designed and produced by the club this year. They have also given a bleach wood finish to the picture frames found in many of the class rooms. These are being used to display student paintings in the north corner of the basement.

Commercial Club

Organized in February, 1947, the Commercial club is one of North Central's newest. Its purpose is to promote and extend the interests of commercial subjects in North Central and to aid its members in preparing for a career in the business world.

Requirement for membership is a commercial major and meetings are held once a month. The club organized with 19 members.

Latin Club

"Senatus populus que Romanus," which means, "the senate and the Roman people," was organized in 1914 by Miss Mary Evans. The adviser now is Miss Frances Theis.

Eligibility rules were altered this year so that a student might join as soon as he enrolled in Latin. The club now has sixty members. New pins, "Fasces," were introduced this semester. On one side of the pin appear the initials S. P. Q. R.; on the other, N. C. H. S.

Mathematics Club

Membership in the Mathematics club is limited to twelve boys and twelve girls. Members must have three semesters of mathematics with three final "B's" and no other grade below "C." R. A. Baldwin is the adviser of this club, which was organized by Bruce Bartholomew in 1913.

In March, the club sponsored a math contest. The winner received a prize and had his name engraved on a special plaque.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll is an international organization founded in 1926 at the University of Iowa. The Edward R. Murrow chapter at North Central was organized in 1939.

A student is eligible to join if he does outstanding work in news, is in the upper third of his class in grades, and is a junior or a senior. Miss Mary McKenna is the adviser and Don Johnson was the president this year.

La Tertulia

La Tertulia, otherwise known as the Spanish club, means, "social gathering." It was organized in 1913 by Miss Edith Broomhall. Miss Bertha Boehme has been the adviser for the past six years.

Students who have "C" grades or better and are in their second semester of Spanish are eligible to join. The group votes on prospective members.

A business meeting is held every other Wednesday morning and a social gathering once a month.

Thespian

For the first time at North Central, Thespian, this year, observed National Drama week with a convocation. They also produced two, three-act plays. Members of Thespian attended the operetta, "Mikado" and the play "The Glass Menagerie" when they were presented at the Post Street theater this past semester.

The purpose of the Thespian society is to promote interest and skill in dramatics and to honor students working on plays. The North Central chapter was organized in January 1945 by Miss Grace Gorton, dramatics teacher.

Vox Puellarum

Vox Puellarum, "voice of the girls," is a social group which strives to develop vocational, musical, literary, and dramatic talent among its members. It was organized in 1913 by R. G. Hargreaves, principal at that time, and Miss Jessie Gibson, who was girls' adviser.

This year, the group sponsored a mixer and gave the proceeds to a new playfield. They presented a basket to a poor family both at Thanksgiving and Christmas time.

Warriors

The purpose of the Warriors' club is to maintain the highest standards of athletics at North Central. It was organized in 1945. Harold Thompson, the present adviser, succeeded Don Bonamy. Each adviser serves only one semester.

New members were initiated at a convocation this year. This is the first time in the history of North Central that a club has held an initiation at a convocation.

Orchestra, Choir, Three Fives

Comprised of 84 talented students, the orchestra, choir, and the Three Fives, all under the direction of W. Stanley Taft, are among the most active organizations in North Central.

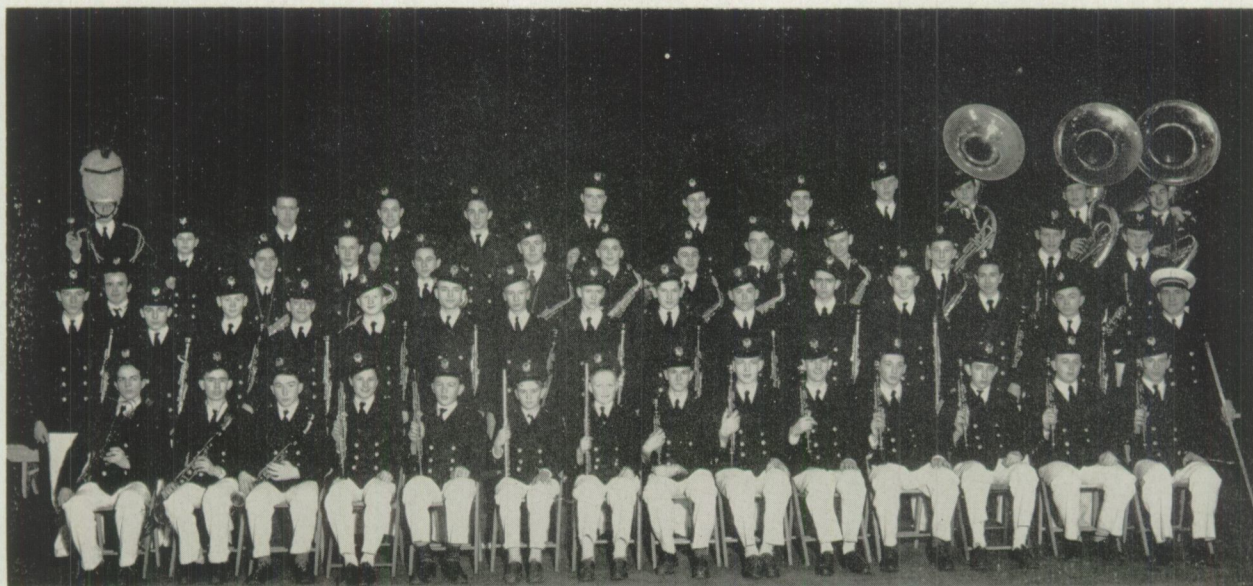

The orchestra and choir, both under the baton of Mr. Taft for the first time this year, were heard together in the thirty-fifth annual operetta, "Rosamunde," Dec. 12-13. They also appeared on one of the Spokane Town Meeting programs with the Three Fives.

The orchestra provided the music for the sparkling Parent-Teacher association show, "Faculty-Folks Follies," and the senior class plays, "Papa Is All," and "A Date With Judy." It presented a program at the Central Methodist church in the spring and played at both the January and June Baccalaureate and Commencement, as well as for several convocations.

The first appearance of the choir this year was in a concert presented to the student body early last fall. They next presented a program for the Spokane Town Meeting with the vocal aid of the Three Fives, during the fall. On April 26, the choir competed with the other high school choral groups in a local contest.

Made up of fifteen comely and talented young ladies is the Three Fives. The fall president of this organization was Flora Mae Wood and that for spring, Dorothy Powell. This group of girls has been busy the last year, appearing before many different groups such as the Eastern Washington Music association, the Organist Guild, and the Spokane Chamber of Commerce.

The N. C. Band . . .

"one of the finest things ever seen"

Enrollment in the band reached an all-time high last fall when 150 boys signed up. The concert band also soared to new limits with 108 members.

Among the fall activities were the stunts presented by the band, the Red Feathers, and the Color Girls, during half time at the Merry-Go-Round game, the Shrine game, and at North Central's home football games.

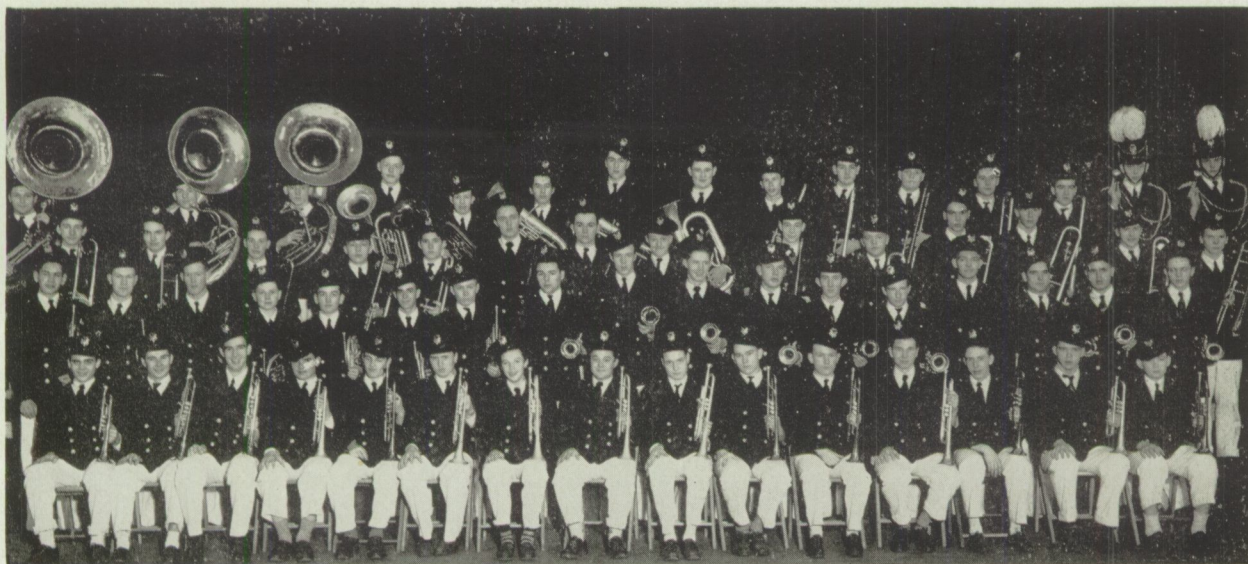

"Down on the Farm" was the theme for the Merry-Go-Round stunt. Inasmuch as there was not any competition for prizes, the trophy for the best performance remains here since the Indians were the last ones to win it.

The half time period in the Gonzaga-

North Central football game saw the marching units put on an exhibit of "box shadow marching," while in the Lewis and Clark-North Central game, letter formations to competing student bodies were presented.

"One of the finest things ever seen," was the praise bestowed on the marching units by critics "who know," when "Camp Scenes" was presented as the half time stunt in the Annual Shrine Benefit game.

The Pep band, always much in demand, made many appearances. They played at the opening game of the Western International Hockey league at the Ice Arena, and they traveled to Eastern Washington College of Education at Cheney where they presented a program of popular music to the students there. Besides providing entertainment during the half time lull at most of the games of the 46-47 session of City Basketball league, they played for convocations, for school dances, and were part of the program with the concert band in a special convocation on January 23.

The spring semester saw several headline performances in which the band played prominent parts.

The concert band played for the Spokane Town Meeting when Randolph Churchill was the speaker. A selected group which included the concert band and the pep band, composed largely of Havermale graduates, presented a complimentary program at Havermale Junior high school, March 7.

Four members of the band represented the school in an all Northwest group at Seattle in mid-March. They were Dick Starry, Bill Jones, and Dick Cross in the instrumental group, and Neil Murphy in chorus.

In the Eastern Washington festival at Cheney on March 29, the band was well represented with individual entries, a clarinet quartet, and a brass sextet. In this group were: Charles Lindberg, Tommy Evans, Neil Williams, Gerald Fry, Tony Cluff, Charles Berry, George Swedberg, Duane Stark, Gerald Musser, Larry Kiser, Bill Jones, George Till, Phil Ashton, Merlyn Anderberg, Jim Winton, Dan Bond, and Dick Starry.

The forty-fifth formal band concert was presented in April at a student covocation and at an evening performance.

Among other programs that the band took part in were the Apple Blossom Festival at Wenatchee, the All City Music Festival, and the Spring Pageant. The band's appearance in the Memorial day parade wound up their year's activities.

Pictured above in the spectacular dress of the court are Dan Penny as Prince Frederick, the hero, and Frances Crosby, who portrayed the title role of Rosamunde.

"Rosamunde"

"Rosamunde," the two-act operetta written by Franz Shubert in 1823, was the thirty-fifth annual operetta presented at North Central. It was presented to packed houses on December 12-13, under the direction of W. Stanley Taft, who for the first time wielded the baton for a North Central operetta. A romantic tale, "Rosamunde," has its setting in the isle of Cyprus, "long ago."

The hero, Frederick, Prince of Candia, who, resolved to put down the tyrant usurper of the throne of Cyprus, finds himself in love with a beautiful shepherdess, Rosamunde. Jealous suspicion and ensuing imprisonment of Rosamunde, lead to the climax, the loss of sanity by the tyrannical king. The operetta has a "Fairy tale ending," the gorgeous wedding of Frederick and Rosamunde and the revelation that Rosamunde is the daughter of the usurped king and rightful heir to the throne of Cyprus.

The grand finale, featuring the wedding of Frederic and Rosamunde, sparkled with the flashing costumes of the court ballets.

Principal characters and their understudies were: Frederick, the Prince of Candia—Dan Penny (Dick Hawes); Fulgentius, King of Cyprus—George Till (Bob Fasig); Philander, a shepherd—Dick Hawes (Donald Beaty); Philemon, a shepherd—Bob Fasig (Lloyd Palmer); Rosamunde, a shepherdess and rightful heir to the throne—Frances Crosby (Flora Mae Wood); Hermina, daughter of Fulgentius—Janet Robinson (Virginia Evans); Aja, foster-mother of Rosamunde—Lois Holsclaw (Mildred Clark); and Baucis, a shepherdess—Ann Clark (Betty Griffith).

The several ballets and dances were under the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham and the costuming under the supervision of Miss Agnes McHugh. Miss Grace Gorton had charge of the dramatics. All art work for the beautiful stage sets and scenery were done under the joint direction of Miss Ethel Ashley and Miss Caroline Busch. George Theodorson supervised the work of the stage crew.

The pastoral operetta is based on an original story by Wilhelmine Von Chezy with the musical score executed by Franz Schubert. Schubert, accustomed to writing incidental music for drama of this character, was attracted to the piece and finished the score in five days.

Leading the graceful and intricate ballets were Sally Bourbeau, Bob LaVigne, and Patty Butterfield.

Indians go over for touchdown in final game with Rogers. North Central 32, Rogers 0.

The change from last year's T formation to Coach Norby's Notre Dame box formation handicapped the Indian football team in the early season games, but the system paid off in the later games.

North Central started the season by beating Rogers 6-0, in the first quarter of the Merry-Go-Round classic. In the fourth quarter Gonzaga's Bullpups outgained the Indians to win the game.

In the regular season opener, the city-champion Lewis and Clark team rolled over North Central, 18-0. In this game Coach Norby was forced to call upon many inexperienced players to fill the holes left by five injured starters. These same injuries haunted the Indians all season.

Black goal numerous times, but unable to push over a score. A second period pass-play by Lewis and Clark was good enough to give the South Siders a 6-0 victory.

The North Central-Rogers series showed the Indians to be playing their worst and best games of the season. During the first tussle, the Indians were unable to bottle up Christianson, later named all-city back, or to stop the passing of Dick Goforth. Rogers walked off with this game by the score of 19-0.

In the second encounter, played on the North Central playfield, Stan Roderick, Bill Evans, John Bryhni, and Ray Feske led the Indians to a 32-0 triumph over the Pirates.

A free-for-all contest with Gonzaga resulted in a 27-12 score with the Warriors on the short end. The two North Central touchdowns were made by Bryhni and Cole McFarland.

The Shrine game was the setting for the second defeat of North Central by the Bullpups. Gonzaga, outclassing the Indians, got all their points in the first half of the game, but in the third and fourth quarters it was all North Central. The final score was 20-6.

Don Olstad and John Bryhni were elected to the Spokesman-Review all-opposition team and Buck Hill was named by the Chronicle sports staff as an all-city center.

Rod Stewart was elected by his teammates to receive the Archie Buckley inspirational award and Ray Feske was honorary team captain.

Despite the many injuries that kept the team far from full strength during the season, the Indians gave a good account of themselves in all the games they played. Next year the return of Evans, Finley, Burson, Weiss, Lyons, Siedel, McFarland, Lister, Stewart, Smith, McVay, and Bennett should make North Central tough competition.

Another six points for the Indians, adding to the 32 to 0 victory over the Pirates.

B SQUAD FOOTBALL

Competition was very keen for positions on last season's B football squad. Though most of the boys were small, this hustling ball squad did the school proud in all their games.

What the B squad lacked in weight, they made up for in speed, clever ball-handling and a "never die" spirit. Though outweighed, they were never outclassed. In seven games, they won two and lost five. They were victors over Central Valley B squad and the North Central freshman team. They were defeated by the Mead Varsity twice and by the B squads of Rogers, Gonzaga, and Lewis and Clark.

Standouts for the B team all season were: Bob Latanzio, Jerry Stephenson, Wally Freeman, Gene Bardsley, Jack Deno, Jim Himes, Walt Becker, Dave Stoddard, Don Hawker, Larry Baker, Homer Davis, Dave Hawes, Rich Monroe, Wally Bratton, Art Hunter, John Hunton, Herby Schmidt, Ken Grothe, Jack Spratt, Don Perry, Dick Alexander, Bill Spelgatti, Keith Lotze, and Ken Lovejoy.

FROSH FOOTBALL

Tying the Gonzaga team for top league honors, the Freshman gridders under the coaching of Harold Thompson finished a highly successful season.

The Central Valley Cubs were the first to feel the wrath of the Papooses by losing 14-0. Kenny Benshoof set up the first score with a 60-yard reverse and the other touchdown came at the end of a 65-yard sustained drive.

At the hands of the B squad the freshmen suffered their only defeat. A slippery ball and field kept the scoring at a minimum and enabled the Junior Varsity to keep their 7-6 lead all through the game.

The first league game was another close contest with North Central edging out the Rogers frosh by 6-0. The Gonzaga game was a thriller but ended in a disappointing scoreless tie. Both sides threatened, and once Jones appeared headed for pay dirt when he slipped and fell.

Jones and Stan Framstad paced the Indians to a 25-0 victory over the Lewis and Clark Kittens. Both scored touchdowns, and brilliant line-play kept the opponents from ever threatening.

Varsity Basketball

Starting their long climb from the door-mat of the city prep league was the big job that Coach Bob Brumblay's undermanned hoop squad undertook this season. They accomplished this task by gaining a three-way tie for second place.

The Indians pre-season invasion of the surrounding Idaho and Okanogan Valley schools was very successful. Such strong teams as Coeur d'Alene, Kellogg, Priest River, Medical Lake, Moscow, Mason City, and Chelan went down before the Red and Black hoopsters.

During the Christmas vacation, the North Central quintet ran Rogers ragged to win easily in the opening round of the West Valley Invitational tournament. In the second round, the Indians suffered a defeat at the hands of the Colfax boys who went on to win the state B title for the second consecutive time.

The first league game against their traditional foe across the river—the Lewis and Clark Tigers—resulted in a defeat for the Indians. The initial win was gained at the expense of the West Valley Eagles who were a badly outclassed ball club that night in the Armory. The next week-end was a different story, however, for the sharpshooting Central Valley Bears racked up a big victory over the smaller North Central Warriors.

Gonzaga and Rogers were the next victims of Coach Brumblay's pivot attack. Thus the Indians ended the first half of city-league play with three wins and two losses. The second half was an exact duplicate of the first half with North Central repeating their wins over West Valley, Rogers, and Gonzaga and losing to Lewis and Clark and Central Valley.

This record was good enough to put the Indians in the district play-off which was a keen disappointment to the Indian cagers as they battled the Lewis and Clark team to a 36-35 score. North Central lost this game only after playing two overtime periods. The next night they lost to Gonzaga who were too strong for the Indians after the long game of the previous night.

Standouts for the team were: Don Cameron, unanimous all-city selection; Ernie Bentley, captain; Tom Perko; Bud Quackenbush; Lowrey Bennett; and Fred Martin.

B Squad, Frosh Basketball, Boxing and Wrestling

Coach John Norby's Junior Varsity provided an exciting outlook for next season's hoop campaign by winning the city title in their own league, which included Lewis and Clark, Gonzaga, and Rogers.

In league play, they won two apiece from Lewis and Clark and from Rogers but were forced to a draw in the two-game series with Gonzaga. Besides this and winning a big majority of their pre-season games, they also raced through the Christmas vacation tourney held at Rogers to gain first place in this neophyte tournament.

Standouts all season for the team were: Bill Wilkinson and Gene Lister—who saw action with the varsity this year—and Bill Joy, Bob Kuehl, Tracy Walters, and Lyle Emch.

The freshman hoopsters, playing under the coaching of Don Bonamy, repeated last year's feat of winning the city league freshmen title.

In the early part of the season, they lost several games to their cousins, the Havermale Papooses, but mid-year graduation brought many of these Havermale players to North Central's squad.

In regular city-league play the team, paced by Curt Bentley, Kenny Benshoof, and Gerald Webster, beat Gonzaga and Rogers twice and split with the Lewis and Clark Kittens.

A new addition to North Central's growing athletic program was acquired this year—a combination boxing, wrestling and tumbling room.

A new mat which covers the entire floor was laid and more mats were placed on the walls. With this equipment Coach Harold Thompson did a splendid job in conditioning many boys during the winter lay-off. Besides keeping in good physical shape for spring sports, the athletes also learned much about the art of self-defense.

STAN RODERICK

Varsity Baseball

A large turnout, over 90 boys, was on hand to compete for positions on the Indian baseball squad this spring. The squad was soon cut to less than thirty and with that nucleus Coach Don Bonamy has molded the most promising diamond team seen in many years around North Central.

Eight lettermen from last year are back and are having to compete with some top-notch under-classmen for starting positions on the team. As we go to press, it looks as though starters for the Indians this year will be: Bud Quackenbush, Dick Washburn, Glen Burton, Don Cameron, Grover Clark, Bud Weiss, Bill Wilkerson, Don Osborne, Dan Penney, and Stan Roderick. The last four named will share the hurling duties with one another.

As the first half of the season ended, North Central was in a tie for first place with Lewis and Clark. The Indians scored easy victories over Lewis and Clark and Gonzaga but lost to Rogers.

Indians on the Track

Coach Guy Barnes predicts a close race for the city prep track title this year as all four schools have strong teams and none of them can be considered weak.

North Central won an important victory in the second annual invitational meet at Washington State college by putting together six firsts and several seconds and thirds to squeeze past Lewis and Clark 32.36-31.36.

North Central appears to be very strong in the distances with the return of Neil Williams and Kenny Nelson, who appear very capable of out-running any opposition in their races—the 880 and the mile run.

The 440 will probably be run by Wally Tesch and Warren Johanson but this position is still wide open, as last year's 440 star, Jack Finley has moved to California. The sprints were weakened by the transfer of Lloyd Raymond to Gonzaga; but Ken Stickel, Joe Simpson, Wally Tesch and Bob Whipple are very capable of providing the points necessary to win the dual meets.

Coach Barnes has a good crop of hurdlers to pick from including Ken Stickel, Vern McVay, Buddy Weiss and Stuart Davis. Stickel's time in early season workouts on the low hurdles has been outstanding, and he looks like a suitable replacement for John Bhryhni and Rudy Cozzetto.

The field events will cause some trouble to North Central, as the broad jump position is not filled and only Bob Brown has been able to place in the pole vault. Jim Burson and Cole McFarland are handling the shot-putting chore and both boys will be hard to beat. In the high jump, lanky Phil Canup and a sophomore from Havermale, Bob Ytreeide, appear to be the strongest on the Indian squad.

Bardsley is up and over.

Collins on the low hurdles.

McVay, Stickle, Simpson, and Tesch start off fast.

McFarland heaves the 12-pound shot.

Boys' Golf

Playing this season against some of the strongest teams ever seen in Spokane, the North Central linksmen will find it difficult to maintain the past records of the Indian golf teams. Faced with the loss of all but one of last year's regulars, Coach Walter Hawes will spend most of his time this spring developing new players for future years.

Buddy Quackenbush, who is back for his third season with the Indians, will be a tough customer for any of the opposing golfers as in practice sessions he has consistently been within a few strokes of par.

Ted Williams, who played several years ago on the North Central squad, has returned and will do much to bolster the Indian cause at Downriver and Indian Canyon.

Don Natwick has shown up well in practice rounds and will undoubtedly make a good showing. Newcomers to the squad are: Carl Funseth, Dale Brunette, and Dick Coulton. These three will get plenty of experience this year and should be able to come back next year with top honors.

Looking at the line-ups from the other schools, Gonzaga has a definite advantage. They are blessed with the return of Al Mengert, National Junior champion, and a top competitor in every match. Also back for the Bullpups are Joe Lynch, Bob Codd, Ross Muncie, and Walt Devlin.

Across the river, Phil Stanton leads another strong Tiger aggregation consisting of Stanton, Herb Cardle, Pete Rheinhardt, and Don Goettle. This might be the year that the long string of Indian victories in the golf series is broken, but N. C. will be no pushover for either Gonzaga or Lewis and Clark.

Boys' Tennis

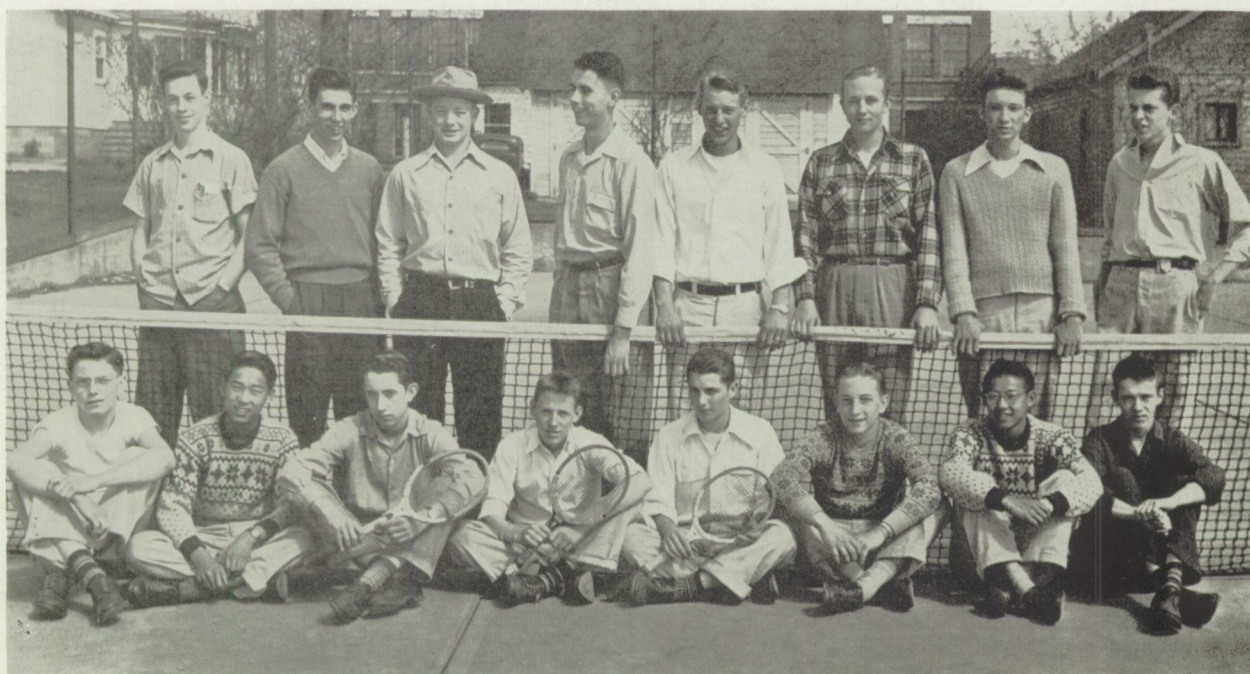

A highly successful season looms for the North Central netsters as seven senior lettermen and many other veterans answered Coach Hix's first call. Bad weather delayed the early practice sessions, but all the players should be in top shape for the first city-league match with Rogers which rolls around on May 7.

Besides playing Rogers, Gonzaga, and Lewis and Clark, matches with Central Valley, Clarkston, Omak, and Washington State college have been scheduled. As a climax to the season, the annual Inland Empire High School tournament will be held on the Comstock Park courts in the latter part of May. This tournament draws many of the best players for several hundred miles around and competition for the coveted trophy should be keen.

Heading the list of returning lettermen are: Doug Tellefson, Ernie Bentley, Bill Ruddy, John Schwarz, Allen Waye, Dan Bond, and Dave Langdon. All seven players have shown much ability in past matches and tournaments.

Dick Monroe, a sophomore from Havermale, Lyle Emch, Jim and John Lee, and Darryl Eagle look like fine material for next year's team. The opposing Spokane high school teams also look as though they would field strong teams this year. Rogers, paced by city titlist, Terry Campbell, may be a big threat to last year's city-champion Indian netsters.

At Boone avenue, most of last year's squad have been graduated, but Dick Bailey, runner-up in the Washington state boys' tournament, will provide plenty of trouble for any opposition.

Girls' Golf

Although losing the city title to Lewis and Clark last fall, the girls' golf team, under the direction of Miss Wilhelmine Timm, was not disheartened and was ready for their meet with their cross town rivals in May. Marguerite Lind was captain and Dianne Lucas was manager for both the fall and spring teams.

The girls travel to Downriver golf course each Tuesday and Thursday period 6 and after school to receive instruction from Neil Christian, professional golfer. They are required to play a minimum of 18 holes a week. To receive a letter they must play in a tournament and receive a score of at least 115 for 18 holes. Marguerite Lind and Georgene Guter were the only two letter winners last fall.

Ratings are earned by a method used during the past three years. A ladder arrangement was developed and team members challenge one another for top positions. The top ten girls are members of the team and five others are rated as reserves. The rest are in the beginners' class.

Girls' Tennis

During the fall semester, the girls' tennis team, under the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham and Miss Betty Gazette, won the city championship with a final victory over Rogers 11-4. They also defeated Lewis and Clark, Central Valley, and West Valley to go through the season without a loss. Mary Jane Grossman, the only member of the team to graduate in January, was captain for the fall term. Shirley Harris, 10A, won the all-city girls singles' championship.

Nearly 90 girls turned out for tennis this spring with the intent of keeping the city title. The girls were divided into A, B, C, and D squads depending upon their ability and experience. Practices were scheduled for Mondays and Wednesdays period 6 and after school and on Saturdays from 8 to 11 a. m. Also some practices were held before school.

Johnnie Gossett was captain of the spring team which played Omak and Clarkston in addition to the city and Valley high schools. Jane Nolen and Pearl Garofalo served as managers for both the fall and spring teams.

Spring Sports Princess

As has been the custom in previous years, the Spring Sports Princess was chosen from the senior A Red Feathers. The girls obtained their votes through the sale of spring sports tickets. Each ticket carried with it one vote and entitled the holder to be admitted to the track and baseball games.

A convocation for the purpose of introducing the candidates was given April 1. The song leaders presented the girls running for the royal position in five novelty numbers. Lucille Dunn was chosen to reign as Princess.

Spring Pageant

"The Good Ship North Central," the biennial spring pageant under the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham and Miss Betty Gazette, and Pearl Garofalo, student chairman, was presented May 28. The pageant was dedicated to the Red Feathers, who celebrated their tenth anniversary this year.

As in the past, the crowning of the Spring Sports Princess was the highlight of the show. During the pageant, the princess and her attendants visited the different countries including France, Russia, China, South America, Ireland, England, and the "good ole' U. S. A.," in a ship guided by six sailors (song leaders.)

Music of the concert band under the direction of Lowell C. Bradford, helped to make the pageant the success that it was.
